If you feel inspired to work for NDNA and to play your part in the future of the childcare sector, this section is for you!

To work for NDNA you should be caring, committed, passionate and honest and like to have fun in your job. In return for your talent and dedication, NDNA will offer you fantastic career opportunities and a range of support and benefits, including:

- 23 days holiday (extra days awarded for length of service) plus bank holidays
- Salary sacrifice pension scheme (6% employer contribution with 3% from employee)
- Access to a range of other benefits including childcare vouchers, free eye tests and health and well being activities

For head office based staff we offer free car parking at our pleasant out-of-town offices, and free tea, coffee and fruit. Home based staff benefit from a monthly broadband allowance and a contribution towards office equipment.
