

who we are

our team and board

NDNA has a thriving and dedicated membership with nurseries and childcare settings of all shapes and sizes, from every part of the sector. We also have local authority, corporate and individual members – all united in the goal of providing high quality childcare.

At NDNA we have a talented and committed team of staff, trustees and volunteers who are passionate about promoting quality in early years. We also have an extended family of volunteers, corporate partners and funders whose support is vital for the charity.
