

NDNA Vision

For all children and families to flourish through excellent early years care and learning

NDNA Mission

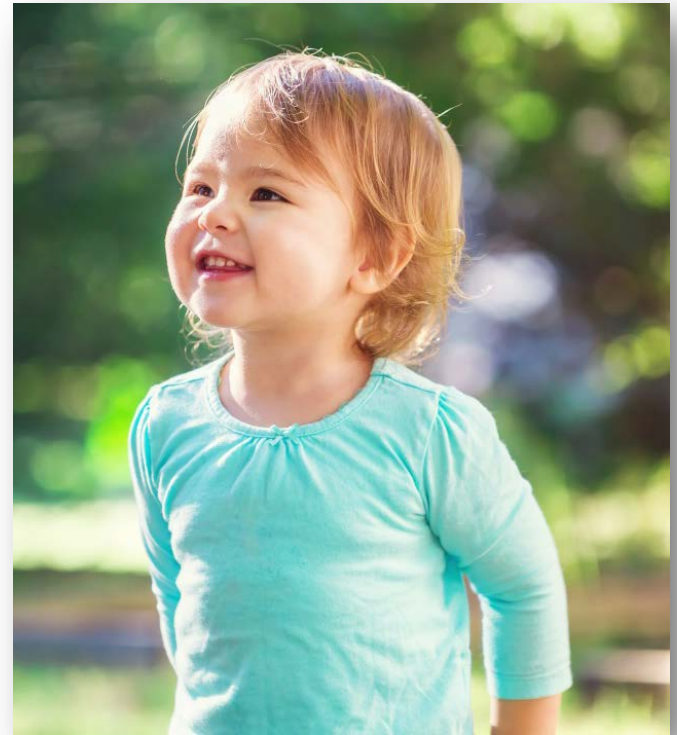

To lead and empower the sector so that nurseries and the early years workforce deliver sustainable, high quality care and learning

What does quality look like?

All children should have a secure, joyful experience in early years which supports them to thrive...

What does quality look like?

High quality early learning and childcare gives all children the best start in life...

This is what you think quality looks like...

Our [★]Quality[★] Vision[★]

All children have a secure, safe and joyful experience in their early years provision where they are helped by skilled and committed practitioners to gain the knowledge, skills and emotional wellbeing they need for their future life.

Our Quality Vision

Play and learning

Children play, explore and learn how to take risks in a safe, well-resourced and stimulating environment supported by knowledgeable practitioners who understand how to encourage playful learning.

Our Quality Vision

Health, safety and wellbeing

Children develop warm and trusting relationships with dedicated practitioners who help them feel secure, form relationships with others, develop independence and learn how to keep themselves healthy and safe.

Our Quality Vision

Leadership and management

Leaders and managers use business acumen, research, reflection and evaluation to develop a sustainable business underpinned by sound policies, procedures and practices to help children have the best start in life.

Our Quality Vision

Workforce

Committed practitioners enjoy their work, reflect on the impact of their engagement with children and take responsibility for improving on what they do through regular participation in professional development.

Quality is...

- Ensuring children are safe from harm
- Fun, laughter, excitement, exploration and adventure!
- A clear leadership vision for the future
- Happy, healthy and motivated children
- Practitioners that:
 - Enjoy working with children
 - Take pride in children's achievements
 - Help children to become confident, communicative and curious individuals
 - Have a genuine interest in development and play
 - Are nurturing, caring and have a genuine interest in each child's wellbeing

Let's invest in our children's futures
