

A guide to the Welsh language at home

Canllaw i'r iaith Gymraeg adre

December - Rhagfyr 2025

With Christmas fast approaching here are some useful festive words in Welsh to help celebrate:

Nadolig – Christmas

Coeden – Tree

Sion Corn – Santa Claus

Corach – Elf

Anrhegion – Presents

Below are a links to three Welsh Christmas songs:

<https://youtu.be/2-Mcqgt9Soc?si=EEAGsrGR47RwR6rg>

https://youtu.be/xtbF0\_QihAc?si=qKrOCSA1OSshIKSi

https://youtu.be/HJ5ihH-f\_Q?si=vvS-G2jVfG8yx7GJ

Do you have a child who is a fan of the 'Gruffalo'? Below is a link to a bilingual reading of 'The Gruffalo's child':

<https://youtu.be/GCr3jtQLUPw?si=ZF09zVMv1lyQOEMV>

The following craft idea can be created at home and adapted to theme's, during December these could include festive/winter items or cold weather animals. <https://youtu.be/EcXnqyzF5uo?si=-cXgajQH2G4aE1c1>

How about adding a personal touch to your Christmas wrapping this year by allowing your children to decorate their own paper, here is some inspiration:

<https://youtu.be/1LXwjmLMzNQ?si=hE4vceJQ6lxeW1Fc>

