

A setting's guide to the Welsh language

Canllaw i'r iaith Gymraeg yn y sefydliad

Chwefror - February 2026

On March the 1st, we celebrate Saint David's day and all things Welsh, here are some useful resources to support with the celebrations.

Dydd Gwyl Dewi – Saint David's day

Dathlu – Celebrate

Cymru – Wales

Cacen cri – Welsh cake

Cennin Pedr – Daffodil

We have a 'celebrating St David's day' factsheet available to download for free on our website, which includes additional vocabulary and useful resources:

<https://ndna.org.uk/product/celebrating-st-davids-day-bilingual-wales-factsheet/>

Here is the song 'Ni, ni, ni yw'r Cennin Pedr, which is the perfect song for Saint David's day and translates to:

'We, we, we are the daffodils.

Green legs and yellow petals

We, we, we are the daffodils

On Saint David's day'

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=L1RsvVqggQc&list=PLMWF-WyiO6KydR3e-TvugzXJufhSh2Tk1&index=27>

We have some exciting craft ideas that you can create at home, we have tutorials below:

Welsh lady bunting - https://youtu.be/QNhktlpFjCY?si=CN4Q53uxjPwL\_h9x

Fire breathing dragon - <https://youtu.be/n8F2vT9YNXs?si=w1SwrXP2vupcC6pH>