

A setting guide to the Welsh language

Canllaw'r sefydliad i'r iaith Gymraeg

Mawrth - March 2026

We celebrate Easter Sunday on April the 5th, here are some useful resources to support with the celebrations.

Pasg – Easter

Bwni – Bunny

Iesu – Jesus

Dathlu – Celebrate

Wyau – Eggs

- Here is an easy learning opportunity to create at home, why not decorate them like easter eggs?
<https://youtu.be/kooGlwsAxm8?si=8A07k9ioBvxzODyH>
- How about stepping into spring by creating some spoon tulips:
<https://youtu.be/iDi8hFCUwnk?si=yNCO2cM9vxS7QOTC>
- We have a butterfly creating craft idea that only requires a couple of resources, making it an ideal learning opportunity to use in the setting:
<https://youtu.be/s5ehqkuKHgg?si=AhOhTtQg3v74ipkw>
- Spring is a beautiful sight of new life, it can be celebrated by following our learning opportunity tutorial on how to create a lollipop stick chick:
https://youtu.be/L79rTj7mffo?si=NGSD4cuCulQgmE\_-

Our 'Spring scene' factsheet shares great examples of how to introduce Welsh language and culture through exploring spring time
<https://ndna.org.uk/product/spring-easter-st-davids-day-wales-factsheet/>